Directions: Read the following comments made about a practical session. Then answer the questions that follow by circling the letter of the best answer.

"In the general higher education programmes in the country, quite often, the students are at a loss, as to what skills are expected of them to be displayed at the end of each practical session. In such a situation, the effectiveness of developing the required skills gets missed out and the teachers concentrate more on the cognitive skills during the practical session rather than on the practical and social skills that can be very effectively developed during the practical sessions."

Which one of the following propositions is most relevant with reference to practical sessions?

1. Cognitive skills are only developed and ought to be assessed in the practical session.
2. Social skills are only developed and ought to be assessed in the practical session.
3. Cognitive skills and social skills are only developed and ought to be assessed in the practical session.
4. Practical, social and cognitive skills are developed and ought to be assessed in the practical session.
