Sl. No.31

QBID:8412031

Given below are two statements: one is labelled as Assertion A and the other is labelled as Reason R

Assertion (A): The 1824 Anglo-Dutch Treaty also known as the Strait Settlement Agreement was seen as a mechanism by which the European powers carved out a de facto boundary between the Dutch and the British possessions.

Reason (R): This ensured that the British and the Dutch were supporting French expansion in the Malacca Strait to further cooperation between the three colonial powers.

In the light of the above statements, choose the most appropriate answer from the options given below:

- | |
|--|
| (1) Both A and R are correct and R is the correct explanation of A |
| (2) Both A and R are correct but R is NOT the correct explanation of A |

Sl. No.32

QBID:8412032

Given below are two statements: one is labelled as Assertion A and the other is labelled as Reason R.

Assertion (A): Recognising its maritime potential, the Presidential manifesto of Joko Widodo, proposed the "Two Ocean or Dua Samudera Policy". This led to the evolution of the proposal for the Global Maritime Fulcrum in 2014.

Reason (R): Indonesia's defence focus prior to this was based on territorial conceptualisation and after the policy, it began to increasingly focus on the maritime aspects too.

In the light of the above statements, choose the most appropriate answer from the options given below:

- (1) Both A and R are correct and R is the correct explanation of A
- (2) Both A and R are correct but R is NOT the correct explanation of A
- (3) A is correct but R is not correct

Sl. No.37

QBID:8412037

Given below are two statements: one is labelled as Assertion A and the other is labelled as Reason R

Assertion (A): At the systemic level, it is possible to understand China's relation with the ASEAN as a means to develop a counter-weight to the US presence in the wider Asia-Pacific.

Reason (R): China's integration with Southeast Asia has also been due to the shift in American priorities towards the War on Terror, which resulted in US's "absence" from Southeast Asia.

In the light of the above statements, choose the most appropriate answer from the options given below:

- (1) Both A and R are correct and R is the correct explanation of A
- (2) Both A and R are correct but R is NOT the correct explanation of A
