Read the following passage and answer the question that follows :

Your body is almost two-thirds water, so staying hydrated is important. Teenagers should aim to drink six to eight glasses of water per day, according to the British Nutrition Foundation. That number increases for teens who engage in sports or are especially active. Other good sources of fluid include 100 percent fruit juice and low-fat milk. Sugary and caffeinated drinks should be limited or eliminated from the diet completely as they provide excess sugar and empty calories.

According to the Cleveland Clinic, teenagers need at least nine hours of sleep each night to function at their best during the day. It sounds easy enough, but with early school start times, late afternoon practices and hours of homework, getting enough sleep can be a challenge. Set a regular bedtime that allows for nine hours of sleep before you have to get up for school. You should also plan for at least an hour of "quiet time" prior to bedtime. The goal is for all electronics to be turned off for the night so that the brain and body relax. Quiet time may involve listening to soothing music or reading a book.

Sports persons need to stay hydrated. They should drink enough :
(1)   water and 100% fruit juices
(2)   water, milk, coffee
(3)   water, juices, tea and coffee
(4)   Sugary and caffeinated drinks as well as enough plain water

Read the following passage and answer the question that follows :

Conducting an interview should be like painting by numbers if you are properly prepared. Consider the various aspects of the interview that benefit from early preparation. Some of these may seem obvious, but if left until the candidates are at the door, they can have a negative effect on the process. A checklist will help to make sure everything is planned and some of the less obvious considerations remembered.

Frequently overlooked is the choice of venue and its layout; this can affect the atmosphere of the interview and how candidates respond. The room can feel forbidding, formal, relaxed or cosy, depending on how the furniture is arranged and how the interviewers behave towards the candidates.

Interviewing can be stressful for candidates and interviewers alike, so take account of this in the timing of the interviews and briefing of the interviewers. Stress levels also influence how interviewers behave towards the candidates; developing skills in how to question and supply information to candidates will smooth the flow and help interviewers improve their performance. Of course, question technique, active listening and observation skills benefit managers in other areas of their work, too. The way in which the interview is ended also has an effect on the candidates and may well effect whether the desired candidate decides whether to accept the offer of employment or reject it.

Learning the Queen's English is like scrubbing off the bright red varnish from your toe nails, the morning after a dance. It takes a long time and there is always a little bit left at the end, a stain of red along the growing edges to remind you of the good time you had. So, you can see that learning came slowly to me. Time was all I had.

But why did I go to all the trouble ? It is because of what some of the older girls explained to me: to survive, you must look good or talk even better. The plain ones and the silent ones, it seems their paperwork in never in order. You say, they get repatriated. We say, sent home early.

The Other Hand is the story of a young woman who flees conflict in her home village in the oil-rich region of southern Nigeria. She makes her way to the UK as an illegal immigrant and is detained for a long period of time at an immigrant detention centre near London. When she finally gets out, she seeks out the only two people she knows in England, whom she met on a Nigerian beach during a life-changing event a few years before. Read the following passage and answer the question that follows :

Learning the Queen's English is like scrubbing off the bright red varnish from your toe nails, the morning after a dance. It takes a long time and there is always a little bit left at the end, a stain of red along the growing edges to remind you of the good time you had. So, you can see that learning came slowly to me. On the other hand, I had plenty of time. I learned your language in an immigration detention centre, in Essex, in the southeastern part of the United Kingdom. Two years, they locked me in there. Time was all I had.

But why did I go to all the trouble ? It is because of what some of the older girls explained to me: to survive, you must look good or talk even better. The plain ones and the silent ones, it seems their paperwork in never in order. You say, they get repatriated. We say, sent home early.

The Other Hand is the story of a young woman who flees conflict in her home village in the oil-rich region of southern Nigeria. She makes her way to the UK as an illegal immigrant and is detained for a long period of time at an immigrant detention centre near London. When she finally gets out, she seeks out the only two people she knows in England, whom she met on a Nigerian beach during a life-changing event a few years before. Will she be able to find them, and if so will they help her ? And if not, will she survive in her newly adopted country as an immigrant ?

What does the author suggest, would have happened if she hadn't learnt the Queen's English ?
(1) She would have survived in England.
(2) She would have been repatriated.
(3) She would have stayed longer is detention.
(4) She couldn't have gone back home easily.

नमिता लंदन में पढ़ रही है। भारतीय होने के कारण वह हर दिन विभिन्न तरह के भेदभावपूर्ण व्यवहार का सामना करती है। उदाहरण के लिए, नमिता की सुबह अर्थशास्त्र की परीक्षा थी। जब वह परीक्षा कक्ष के बाहर अपने नोट्स दोहरा रही थी तो उसकी सहपाठी जेसिका ने टिप्पणी की कि, ''तुम सपेरों के देश से हो, मुझे नहीं लगता कि उच्च अर्थशास्त्र की अवधारणाएं तुम्हारे बस की बात है।'' नमिता को बुरा लगा और वह इस बारे में सोचने लगी। यद्यपि वह परीक्षा के लिए पूरी तरह से तैयार थी लेकिन घबराहट की वजह से वह परीक्षा में अच्छा प्रदर्शन नहीं कर पाई और फेल हो गई। उसका परिणाम देखकर अन्य विद्यार्थियों ने उसे ''कुछ नहीं जानती नमिता'' कहना शुरू कर दिया। कुछ विद्यार्थियों ने बिना किसी उकसावे के अन्य भारतीय विद्यार्थियों को तंग करना शुरू कर दिया। इस घटना के बाद अन्य देशों के विद्यार्थियों ने विश्वास करना शुरू कर दिया कि भारतीयों के बारे में सब जो कहते हैं उसमें कुछ सच्चाई है।

लोग रूढ़धारणा रखना जारी रखते हैं क्योंकि वे सोचते है कि अन्य समूह के बारे में सब जो कहते हैं उसमें कुछ सत्य है, तो यह क्या कहलाता है ?

(1) बलि का बकरा बनाना

(2) स्वतः साधक भविष्योक्ति

(3) सत्य का आधार तत्व
