Read the following passage and answer the given questions :

In ancient Sparta, originally known as Laconia, the citizens were stoical and were noted for their economy of speech. Legend has it that when Philip of Macedonia was storming the gates of Sparta/Laconia, he sent a message to the besieged king saying, "If we capture your city, we shall burn you to the ground." The king replied by reiterating on the word, "If". Hence, it is from the word 'Laconic' motivated by the conduct of Laconia, that we know the character traits of 'Stoical Pithy.'
